YOU MEN WHO PAY THE FAMILY SHOE BILLS

Tramping 18 miles a day, Mr. H. M. Foreman, a mail carrier of Allentown, Pa., found that shoes with ordinary soles last about one month. But he says a pair of Neolin-soled shoes gave him more than nine months of service, in which time he walked over 4,000 miles.

His experience shows how you may save shoe money by providing your family with Neolin-soled shoes, which give extra wear where other shoes wear out quickest.

You can get Neolin-soled shoes in any type of shoe you want. Prices are about the same as for shoes that give only ordinary wear, sometimes they are even less. If your dealer hasn't the style you want, he can get it for you quickly. Remember, Neolin Soles are created by science to be what shoes should be. They are available everywhere for re-soles as well as on new shoes. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heel—guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

Well, anyhow, so far we haven't run into the inconvenience of a trolley strike.

E. PEACHAM COUPLE CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark Open House Past Week at Blair's Hall

OUT OF TOWN GUESTS

Hundred and Twenty-five Guests Present to Offer Congratulations to Long-Married Pair

The event of the week was the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of East Peacham, which was celebrated at Blair's hall on Tuesday, January 21. Mr. and Mrs. Clark had planned to have their children at dinner on that day, but entirely without their knowledge relatives and friends were planning a more fitting celebration for the event, and so quietly and well was their affair carried out that Mr. and Mrs. Clark were completely in ignorance of the plans until they were taken to the hall by Comer Moore about noon and found a company of about 125 present to offer congratulations. The hall was beautifully trimmed with wreaths and garlands of hemlock tied with yellow ribbon. These were in all the windows. The piano was also decorated with the same colors and a large ostrich plume fern donated for the occasion by Mrs. George Smith.

When the couple reached the hall they were escorted by their grandsons, Frances Churchill, to chairs also trimmed with green and yellow. They were followed by the other relatives in order.

Four other grandchildren, Myrtle, Wendell and Martin Clark, and Alma Churchill, held long green and yellow ribbons reaching from the door to each chair. As the party entered Mrs. Laura Palmer played the wedding march. A bountiful collation was served consisting of oysters, crackers, sandwiches, cake, doughnuts and coffee. Mrs. Clark was escorted to the table by her son, Clinton Clark, and Mr. Clark by his daughter, Mrs. Elsie Churchill.

The tables were decorated with bouquets of hemlock and at each plate were favors of sprays of hemlock tied with yellow ribbon. A program was given as follows: Song, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," sung by Mrs. Oliver Cowan, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Palmer; graphophone selection by George Smith, "Christ Arose" and "Golden Wedding," remarks by Rev. Harold Hild, pastor of the Methodist church; original poem by George Smith; piano solo, Theresa Blain; song, "Mother's Bible," Mrs. Florin Churchill and Mrs. Palmer; graphophone selections, "When the Springtime Brings the Roses," "Wedding Bells" and "Stop Your Tinkling John," original poem, Theresa Blain; remarks by Rev. T. A. Carlson, and presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Clark of $50 in gold from the community; response by Mr. Clark.

In well fitting words he thanked them all and called attention to the suit he wore as the same worn by his grandfather, Jonathan Clark, as a wedding vest 128 years ago. George Clark and Luthera (Wheeler) Clark were married by O. N. Bouwell January 21, 1869, at the place where Herbert Blair now lives. They lived there for a time then moved to the Chapman place and later Mr. Clark built the house where Charles Bradley now lives. When Mr. Clark's father died Mr. and Mrs. Clark moved to the place where his son, Chester, now lives, which is the old "Clark" place, having been in the Clark family about 135 years, being first settled by Jonathan Clark, who lived in a log house near where the present house now stands. The present house on the place was built by Jonathan Clark, later it became the home of Jude and Sarah (Prime) Clark, then Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, and at present is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Clark and four children. It will be seen that it is an interesting part of Peacham history which the celebration of Tuesday has brought to mind. Seven years ago Mr. and Mrs. Clark moved to the "Trussell" place at East Peacham, where they have lived alone, both are in fairly good health, although Mr. Clark has been sick at times and his health is not of the best. Mrs. Clark was the daughter of Henry and Sophia (Gilman) Wheeler and was born in Peacham Aug. 9, 1848.

George Clark was born at Newburyport, Mass., March 29, 1842. They have three children, Mrs. Florin Churchill and Chester Clark of Peacham, and Alden Clark, who is business manager in the department store of A. I. Moody at Fargo, North Dakota. They also have eight grandchildren. Mrs. Clark has two sisters living, Mrs. Cornelia Carter of Barnet, and Mrs. Emily Bliss of Williston. Mr. Clark has one sister, Mrs. Frank Ainsworth of Danville, and two brothers, Oliver P. Clark of Boulder, Col. and Joe Clark of Portland, Oregon. Three persons were present at the celebration Tuesday that were present at the wedding 50 years ago, Elwin Wheeler, Mrs. Frank Ainsworth and Mrs. James Blaine. Besides the $50 in gold from the community, Mr. and Mrs. Clark received $50 in gold from their son, Alden Clark, and $18 from other relatives and friends, also other gifts and letters from those who were unable to be present. The dining room Tuesday was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Comer Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hastie, Mrs. G. W. Esden, Mrs. Carl Somers. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Robert Butson and Lena Wheeler. The decorations were designed by Mrs. George Smith. Those from out of town to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powers of St. Johnsbury Center, Mrs. Frank Ainsworth and Asa Sargent of Danville, Mr. and Mrs. James Blaine, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roy of Danville, and Mrs. Abbie Lamphere of Barnet.

The Golden Rule

We are gathered here today From towns far and near, For fifty years have passed away, To those who to our hearts are dear.

Neighbors, friends and children all, Have answered to the "golden call," Listened to the one that said, Fifty years have they been wed.

Looking through the mist of years Many of joy, some of tears, To the day when you were wed And the hopes of love were said.

First in Peacham then to live, And the tool of life to give On the farm upon the hill, Next the village land to till.

Then came joy of children three, Chester, Alden and fair Elsie, Brightening up your happy lot, Until they were by marriage taught.

One is found not far away Calling in most every day, One is on the old home farm Tilling it with steady arm.

The youngest to the west did go Finding business in Fargo, So from our numbers here is absent Distance prevents him to be present.

Three from our numbers merry, Were present in that January, Fifty years ago when ties were said And George and Luthera were wed.

Though then but children small They are present in the hall, Besides them, two sisters yet Of whom mention we must not forget.

Yet the our numbers may be broken We extend to you love's token In memory of these fifty years You have traveled without fear.

May your days so numbered be That the Redeemer's face you'll see, When upon the other shore Days are numbered never more.

Read by Theresa Blain at Mr. and Mrs. George Clark's golden anniversary.

Protection of Women Under International Law

The College Club, the Woman's Club and other women's organizations of this place are arranging to circulate the petition of American women to the Peace Congress which is now being assembled by the Committee on Protection of Women under International Law, Mrs. William C. Beecher, of Brooklyn, N. Y., chairman.

This petition is in response to an appeal from the women of France to the women of all countries on behalf of the unfortunate women of the country invaded by Germany and reads as follows:—

"Whereas there is overwhelming evidence that in the present war the armies of the Central European powers and of their Allies have been permitted and encouraged to commit, and officers and men en masse, have actually and persistently committed every form of sexual offence against the women of every country they have entered; and,

Whereas, a campaign is being conducted to secure the signatures of women to a petition demanding the trial and punishment on conviction of every guilty officer and soldier of the Central Powers, and also demanding that all women so injured be officially recognized as wounded in war;

Therefore be it resolved that we whose names are appended endorse this petition and authorize our names to be added to the list of names to be sent to the Peace Congress."

The signatures of a million American women are asked for. Those in this vicinity who desire to sign will find the petition at the Army at the next regular meeting of the Red Cross on Tuesday, Jan. 28.

It will be of interest to the many friends of Paul Sargent, Carlisle Sargent and Albert Ramsey, who are on the "Savannah," U. S. N., to know that they sail from Charleston, S. C., Jan. 28 to Key West, Fla., touching the following ports: Guantanamo Bay, Cuba; Fama Bay, Hayti; San Juan, Porto Rico; St. Thomas, Virgin Island, coming home via Hampton Roads, Newport, R. I., and arriving in Boston, May 11.

W. F. Schoppe of Canaan is visiting his son, Arthur Schoppe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Castoncuay are visiting their daughter in Tilton, N. H.

ACADEMY TEAM WINS IN THE BASKET BALL CHAMPIONSHIP TILT

Local Quintette Turns Trick on Strange Floor at Newport Last Night

SCORE STANDS 30-21

Large Attendance Marks End of Tussle Between This Town and Northern Neighbor

(Special to the Caledonian)

St. Johnsbury Academy's basketball team visited Newport, Friday evening and after 40 minutes of hard, grueling play, came off victorious by a score of 30 to 21.

The game was close and exciting throughout and furnished many thrills for the spectators who showed their keen appreciation for the fine brand of basket ball by continuous applause.

Newport showed a good eye for the basket in practice before the game but in the game seemed to lose all ability to shoot and although they peppered the basket throughout the game, they were unable to land enough to win.

The first period ended with the score 11-5 in St. Johnsbury's favor, Akin being the only Newport man to score a floor basket, while Smith of St. Johnsbury scored three and Malvern one.

Both teams shook out the kinks in the second half and three baskets apiece by Smith and Malvern and one by Foye, coupled with the excellent foul shooting of Malvern, gave the Academy boys 30 points while Newport's forwards were piling up 21.

For St. Johnsbury, captain Smith and Akin starred, Malvern sinking foul line out of 12 tries.

Akin starred, playing a, and scoring five of
